SMA QLD Code of Practice

Privacy Policy - SMA QLD abides by the National Privacy Principles of the Privacy Act 1988 and respects your privacy. Personal information may be used by Sports Medicine Australia for external auditing purposes and to send you information about our various products, services or workshops.

Legislation - SMA QLD complies with Commonwealth and State legislation including Occupational Health and Safety; Workplace harassment; Anti-discrimination; Vocational Education Training and Employment ACT 2000; Privacy (staff and students) and Child protection.

Access & Equity - SMA QLD encourages the participation of a cross section of the community. Therefore participants with literacy and / or numeracy impairment may seek support throughout the course and during assessment. Please contact SMA QLD if assistance is required.

Assessment - The assessment process is holistic and may include group work, practical applications, and oral and/or written theory tests. Assessment will be conducted to meet relevant competency standards for the individual course and successful participants will receive the appropriate certification.

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) - All applications for RPL must be submitted in writing with supporting documentation to the State Operations Manager. All candidates must satisfy the competencies of the specific accreditation in which RPL is being sought. RPL assessments will be conducted in accordance to SMA QLD training protocols.

Mutual Recognition - SMA QLD agrees to recognize AQTF qualifications and Statements of Attainments issued by other Registered Training Organizations throughout Australia.

Behaviour Expectations - Sports Medicine Australia endeavors to provide a learning environment that is supportive of group and individual learning. This requires support from all students, presenters and course conveners. It is therefore expected that students will respect the rights of other students and Sports Medicine Australia staff and refrain from behaviour that is disruptive. On occasion where an individual's behaviour impacts on group learning and harmony the course convener or the presenter has the right to issue a verbal warning and if the behaviour continues the student may be asked to leave

Appeals - SMA QLD is committed to providing a learning environment in which complaints and appeals are responded to promptly, with minimum distress and maximum protection to all parties. Appeals against results and / or the process need to be made in writing, within 14 days of results being issued.

Grievances - Should a participant feel that they have been treated unfairly, they have the right to lodge a grievance. SMA QLD has a formal grievance procedure available on the SMA QLD Web site.

Refund Policy - A full refund of fees will be given when SMA QLD cancels a course. Where a participant cancels, in writing, a minimum of 8 days prior to commencement of a course, 75% of the course fees paid will be refunded. There will be no refund or course transfer when a participant withdraws if written notification is received by SMA QLD less than 8 days prior to commencement of the course. These conditions may be varied in cases of extreme circumstances
